Neill Cautions Board On Non-Essentials In Budget, Up 14 Percent Over '61-62

A preliminary 1962-63 budget of $1,886,237, representing a 14 percent increase over this year, was studied by the Carmel School Board at an adjourned meeting for that purpose last night, along with a six-year survey of past school budgets which showed a rise of some $650,482 since the 1958-59, and a projected rise of $146,707 for the 1963-64 school year.

The current (62-63) budget figure was compared with an anticipated income for next year of $1,875,972, leaving the district just $10,265 short of balancing its set of figures by July 1.

However, Assistant Superintendent of Schools Wayne Greenfield, who submitted the figures, pointed out that assessed valuation in the district may be more than the anticipated figure of $52,889,955. Also, the school tax rate, now $2.35 per $100 assessed valuation will remain essentially the same as this year, he said.

An earlier headache faced this spring by the board was partly cured by the current preliminary figures which showed teachers' salaries at 54.9 percent of the first seven items less transportation, or only a little over $2,000 short of meeting the 55 percent requirement established by state law.

The discussion last evening brought forth a charge from board member Clayton Neill, Jr., that expenses for non-essential items are rising too rapidly. "Taxpayers do not mind paying more if it means superior education for our children, but they do mind increased expenses for things not directly contributing to this superior standard," Neill said. "We really have to make an attempt to keep our less essential operating expenses to a minimum."

In addition to cautionary comments about economizing from Neill and other board members, the board passed two new budget requests, one for the salary estimated at $3,000, for a half-time foreign language teacher (Spanish and French) who would divide his time between the high school and the junior high, and a maximum of $600 for a phono-visual in-service training workshop in September.

Broken down by items, the preliminary budget, which is still under study pending final approval by the board at a meeting next Wednesday, looked this way:

Administration, $91,892; instruction (including salaries of principals, supervisors and teachers), $1,208,528; health services, $22,867; pupil transportation, $58,500; plant operation, $162,441; plant maintenance, $54,657; fixed charges $82,204; food services, $400; community services, $35,241; capital outlay, $59,507; undistributed reserve, $30,000; general reserve June 30, 1963, for 1963-64, $80,000.

In the six-year study, which showed actual expenditures for prior years and estimated expenditures for next year, but no general or undistributed reserves, the figures looked this way:

Budget for 1958-59, $1,125,755; 1959-60, $1,376,852; 1960-61, $1,438,475; 1961-62, $1,563,950; 1962-63, (Continued on Page Sixteen)

Court Action Filed Against City Over Beach Subdivision

Filed in Superior Court in Salinas on Monday was a restraining order against the City of Carmel. A hearing on the matter will be held tomorrow.

The restraining order was filed by Donald Smith, attorney for Murray Metzbaum. In addition to the city, Anita Doud, Kathleen Watson and four city councilmen are named in the action to stop subdivision into three building sites of a 12,000 square foot piece of land fronting on Scenic Drive and extending to the beach south of Ocean Avenue and north of Seventh Avenue.

Owners of the property, Miss Doud and Mrs. Watson, were allowed a use permit by the planning commission to divide the land into three sites, each with an access easement.

Neighbors, including Mr. Metzbaum, protested the subdivision and appealed against the use permit to the city council.

The council split 2-2 on the vote on the appeal, which left the planning commission's use permit still valid.

Councilmen named in the resulting court action on Monday were Mayor Eben Whittlesey, Frank Putnam, Francis Whitaker, and James Buffington, Jr.

Briefs...

Carmel's spells of tropic sunshine and sudden fog dealt harshly with one new resident this week—the pet boa constrictor whose home is a glass showcase in a Carmel Plaza shop. The warmth he could stand, his owner said, but for the fog an electric heating pad, set at "medium," was thoughtfully provided.

Carmel is represented by four students at the American Red Cross National Aquatic School at Camp Tulequoa near Miramonte. The intensive 10-day course of training in water safety and first aid ends Saturday.

All four of the students from Carmel are majoring in the water safety section. They are Mary Martin, Pamela Petersen, Joy Fehring and Doyle Clayton.

The four young people were selected by Carmel-by-the-Sea Red Cross Chapter to attend the aquatic school on chapter scholarships.

The Monterey Peninsula Volunteer Services will donate all July proceeds of the organization's thrift shop to the Carmel Youth Center. The teenage members of the center are anxious to raise a large sum from this source to support their recreation center and ask all persons with new or used articles to donate to the shop to either bring them to the youth center or telephone MA 4-3285 or MA 4-8503 for free pick-up service.

Milton Frincke, superintendent of Point Lobos State Reserve, announces that, starting Tuesday, a naturalist will be on duty to conduct walks through Cypress Grove and around Pelican Point, also intertidal tours. Further information may be obtained by telephoning the ranger station. The number is MA 4-4909.

CHILDREN WANTED

Children between the ages of 8-18 who wish to have parts in Inchling, a three-act fantasy which will be produced in August under the Carmel Unified School District summer recreation program, are asked to report to the Forest Theater next Wednesday afternoon from 1:00 to 4:00 o'clock. At this time, Mrs. Richard Lofton, who will direct the fourth performance of the Ira Remsen play in the city's open air theater, will interview actors and actresses for a cast of 50 characters.

Any children, or adults, who wish to help with technical production and costuming, are also invited to meet Mrs. Lofton during the same hours.

School District Has New Assistant Superintendent In Charge Of Instruction

Dr. Leon M. Lessinger, former chief research consultant for the California Department of Education, has been appointed to the new post of assistant superintendent in charge of instruction for the Carmel Unified School District.

School board members last night ratified Dr. Lessinger's contract with the district for the job created last month at a salary of $13,640 per year.

Dr. Lessinger, who for the past two academic years has been chief of curricular services and director of guidance for Grossmont Union High School District near San Diego, will arrive here in August to begin his new duties.

In addition to his career in education, Dr. Lessinger had an earlier career in engineering, working on atom bomb development at Los Alamos, New Mexico, under Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer and Dr. Enrico Fermi, after obtaining his bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from North Carolina State College, in 1944.

In 1947 he received a bachelor of arts degree in psychology from the University of California at Los Angeles, in 1950 an MA in educational psychology, and in 1957 an EdD. there.

Following nine years' experience teaching in various elementary and secondary grades and in adult education, he became chief research consultant for the State Education Department, establishing the research design for the state Study of Gifted Pupils and helping write the legislation for the state program for mentally gifted youngsters.

In addition, he has served as consultant to seven county and elementary and secondary school districts in testing, research and curriculum programs, and has done summer teaching at Claremont Graduate School and San Diego State College. He is also author of a number of articles on education in professional publications.

Dr. Lessinger was selected for the new position from a field of 23 applicants whose names were submitted by teacher training schools in California.

PADRES GRADUATE SOME OUTSTANDING ATHLETES

The 1962 graduating class of Carmel High School embraced a host of athletic stars who brought fame and glory to the Red & Gray campus. Sparked by dedicated seniors, the football team finished in second place, losing only to the high-powered King City Mustangs. The third-place basketball squad was manned for the most part by seniors, and the last-year men were primarily responsible for winning the Gustine Tournament and copping the consolation prize in the Carmel Tournament.

Carmel's lightweight hoopers tied with Live Oak for the league title, and the guiding light behind the classy unit was Alan Arndt, a tall, thin senior. Page van Loben Sels captained an undefeated tennis team and was an inspiration to the underclassmen on the squad.

Carmel's lightweight track team won the league title, but the Padres were using ineligible lightweights in the championship meet and the title is slightly tarnished.

With seniors doing a noble job, the Padre swimming team took third place in the CCAL meet, bowing only to the powerful natators from Salinas and Monterey.

Smooth - swinging Martin Andrews captained the undefeated golf squad, and his excellent leadership aided the underclassmen in the drive to the CCAL championship.

Lettermen who will no longer don the Red & Grey spangles include Bob Albee, swimming and football; Martin Andrews, golf; Alan Arndt, lightweight basketball and track; Rick Baldwin, football, basketball, and track; Tony Belletti, football, basketball, and track; Dennis Blasius, football; Rowland Bories, football; Jim Brown, basketball and baseball; Terry Butler, track; Art Catron, football, swimming, and track; Warren Chapman, track; Forrest Cornwall, baseball and basketball; Ray Eaton, football and track; Steve Fairfield, football and basketball; Tom Farrell, swimming; Pete Foster, basketball; Baxter Garcia, tennis and golf; John Hackbarth, football and swimming; Bruce Hyndman, football; George Pollock, football and track; Jon Raggett, track; Steve Rogers, football and swimming; Chris Rose, swimming; David Salyer, track; Brendon Seaborn, track; Barry Sherman, basketball; Rick Shively, baseball, football, track, and basketball; Mike Taaffe, basketball and track; Dave Terry, football and track; Jim Trivette, football and track; Page van Loben Sels, tennis and basketball; Bob Wakefield, football, basketball, and track; and Pat Olmsted, football, track, and basketball.

BOYS' TOWN AND PILOT TOP LITTLE LEAGUE

Second Half Standings

	Won	Lost
Boys Town	4	0
Pilot Market	3	0
P. A. Macs	1	2
Turner & McEldowney	1	2
Wilder & Jones	0	2
Sport Shop	0	3

Newt Goodrich's Boys' Town squad has been dominating play in the second-half race of the Carmel Little League with an undefeated record in four games, and a steady type of play which will make the clothiers tough to beat. Boys' Town finished fourth in the first-half, but served notice toward the end of the half it would have something to say about the second time around. Under the enthusiastic guidance of Manager Goodrich and his capable assistant, Dick Rohr, the clothiers 1962 rookie crop improved with each game and now rate as an even-up chance to battle Pilot Market for the league title.

In a nifty pitching battle between Jack Campbell for Boys' Town and the duo of John Kimbark and Hart Silverie of Wilder & Jones, Campbell came out the winner on the strength of a two-hit performance and a clutch single by Jay Argust which drove in the runs for the 2-1 victory. Kimbark and Silverie pitched well enough to win most games, but the caliber of play in this one was top-flight all the way and required a near-perfect performance to notch the win. Besides pitching the win, Campbell also paced the clothiers at the plate, hitting a pair of singles in two official trips to the plate.

Boys' Town continued its winning ways in two other outings, clipping Jim Kelsey's Turner & McEldowney nine, 10 to 6, and topping Lee McGuckin's P. A. Macs, 9 to 1. Jim Grey opposed Paul Lagace in the T & M - Boys' Town clash, with Lagace getting the win after receiving some relief support from John Jacoby. Both teams put on big last-inning rallies, each getting five runs in the final heat.

Jack Campbell hurled a three-hitter, and catcher Gary Newton hit 3-for-5 to lead the win over P. A. Macs. Chris Laiolo, starting pitcher for the insurance gang, led his mates at the plate, stroking two singles in two official times at bat.

Art Carpenter's Pilot Market kept its 1962 record spotless by trimming the Sport Shop, 3 to 0, and clipping the P. A. Macs, 8 to 2. Ronnie Parsons, diminutive grocer hurler, struck out an even dozen as he blanked the Sports on an effective two-hitter. Rod Ruskell and Randy Newman were the only Sport Shop swingers to find the range against the crafty slants of little Parsons. Pitcher Randy Newman and Mark Zanides gave up five scattered blows to the winners in the fast, well-played game.

Steve Mason pitched his first win of the season against the Macs, allowing one run in four innings, before he was relieved by Scott Lemons. Mitch Kastros was the game's top hitter, getting a perfect 2-for-2. John Dudley spoiled a no-hit bid by Mason and Lemons by connecting for a single in the final inning.

The crucial tilt of the second half is on tap at the Little League Park next Monday evening when Boys' Town and Pilot Market cross bats for the league lead. A win for either team will put the victor in a commanding position to win the second half as the schedule does not call for the two clubs to meet again in the second half.

Tonight's schedule has Pilot going against Turner & McEldowney; Friday night, it's Wilder & Jones and P. A. Macs; Tuesday, Turner & McEldowney tests Wilder & Jones; and Wednesday's fare has P. A. Macs going against the Sport Shop.

Saturday's Farm League schedule finds the American Legion against Mission Ranch at 10 a.m.; Rocky Point Restaurant tries the Rockets at noon; Surf n' Sand and the Village Inn take over at 2:00; and the 4:00 o'clock tilt has Carmel Plaza matched with Derek Rayne.

Cast Of Bell, Book And Candle Puts Spell Of A Convincing Performance On White Oaks Opening Audience

White Oaks Summer Theatre in Carmel Valley opened its fourth summer stock season last night with John van Druten's Bell, Book and Candle, a comedy about a contemporary world of witches and warlocks.

After a mystifying and slowly-paced beginning scene, the play began gathering momentum in the second scene and rolled rapidly through the next two acts.

The audience, seemingly enchanted by the modern witchcraft, in the end realized the only true spell cast in the old Valley barn converted into a theatre, was that of a well-acted performance.

Jeanne Bartlett as Gillian Holroyd, a winsome flaming-haired practitioner of "Old American" witchcraft, created the fantasy necessary to make the comedy convincing.

She entirely won the sympathy of her audience as she progressed from a heartless sorceress, armed with the powers of necromancy, to a young woman shedding tears because her heart had no defenses against the "human" hurt of a lost love.

Lee Melville played the role of her lover, Shepherd Henderson, at first enchanted by Gillian's spells. He later is disenchanted by a more powerful witch and reacts as any young man would in such a situation. This reaction produces the climax of the play.

Melville's portrayal of Gillian's lover, though good over-all, seemed a little too gentle at times. Such a strong interpretation as Miss Bartlett's Gillian needs an equally powerful protagonist.

Supporting roles were played by Shirley Eoff as Miss Holroyd, Gillian's aunt who dabbles in witchcraft; Stuart C. Smith, as Gillian's brother, a wily warlock who tangles her romance as best he can; and Ronn Mullen as Sidney Redlitch, a writer on witchcraft who finds he constantly needs the support of alcoholic beverages to face the results of his research. Each of these characters received the necessary treatment they demand to make them convincing.

The last member of the cast, Pyewacket, a Siamese cat and Gillian's familiar, gave a flawless performance.

Sally Hughes Church was responsible for the fine direction and production of van Druten's fantasy. Set designs by Jack Roush and Richard Smart were most effective in their tasteful simplicity and left an open, uncluttered stage for the performers.

Eleanor Stoltz created the costumes. Those Gillian wore elegantly emphasized her evolution from witch to woman; those of Miss Holroyd were as wacky as the part of Auntie requires.

Technical direction by Arthur Conn and his assistant, James Ellingwood, and lighting by Jack Roush contributed to the fine quality of the performance.

The run of Bell, Book and Candle will continue at White Oaks Theatre each week, Wednesday through Sunday, until its final performance on July 8.

Judging from last night's performance, the Valley stock company is entering its most successful season to date.

An added feature this year is a patio behind the barn theatre where coffee is served at intermissions and a guitar player adds color to the country atmosphere of the Valley playhouse.

Patrons are invited by the management to bring picnic suppers and eat before any performance in the shelter of striped awnings around the patio which is supplied with tables and chairs. —M. L.

Court Action Filed Against City Over Beach Subdivision

granted, refrained from consideration of the appeal and is not named in the action.

According to Mr. Smith, a subdivision map of the Doud-Watson land, filed with the city, shows an easement 100 feet long and ten feet wide along the south side of the site fronting on Ocean Avenue, also two easements, each 17 by 30 feet on both of the lots fronting on the beach. All the easements are for access to the beach-side sites which face on the abandonment by the city of Del Mar Avenue, thus having no direct access from a street.

Mr. Smith says the restraining order will show that the easements make each of the three sites less than 4,000 square feet in size. His client, Mr. Metzenbaum, objects to the smaller than regulation - size building sites allowed by the planning commission use permit for the Doud-Watson land, adjacent to his client's property on the south, he claims.

time to writing, Miss Overhulse was a member of the faculty of Stephens College in Missouri where she taught psychology for some years.

WHAT'S DOING

Disneyland is only 366 miles from Monterey. If you visit Disneyland this year do not forget to see the Bell System exhibit featuring the Circarama film "America the Beautiful." It's an amazing movie unlike any you've ever seen.

This 360-degree color movie—an exclusive Walt Disney process—takes you on a breath-taking tour of the United States. You can also see how communications link America together...

the newest telephone products and services... and an exhibit showing how phone calls and TV programs might be transmitted by satellite. Admission's free to "America the Beautiful." We're sure you'll enjoy it too.

You might be interested to know that the tax on your phone bill may be lower after July 1st, if Congress votes to drop the 10% Federal Excise Tax you now pay on local phone service.

This is the 20-year-old wartime "luxury tax" imposed on items like furs, jewelry, perfume—and telephones. Well, I'm sure no one considers his telephone a luxury any more than other necessities like gas and electricity.

And, repealing this tax would mean direct savings to you by lowering the cost of local phone service by the full amount of the tax.

With vacation time here, most folks are busy deciding where to go this year. Almost anywhere you head, you're apt to meet lots of other vacationers, and good accommodations may be scarce.

There's an easy remedy, though: just call ahead for reservations. It takes only a few minutes and can save you lots of time hunting for a vacancy.

Attended by her four sisters, Mary Jean Fehring became the bride of David Andrew Davini, Jr., on Saturday afternoon in the Church of the Wayfarer. Jeanie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fehring of Carmel. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David Andrew Davini of Cloverdale.

Dr. K. Fillmore Gray performed the double ring ceremony at 2:00 o'clock, and the church was decorated with white stock, gladioli and daisies. John Farr sang Because and The Lord's Prayer to the organ accompaniment of Connell Carruth.

Jeanie, escorted by her father who gave her in marriage, was preceded up the aisle by her sisters. Her bridal gown of white chantilly lace had a hoop-skirt edged with tiny pleats. Her tulle veil was held by a narrow crown of seed pearls and small tulle leaves, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

The bride's older sister, Janet, was her maid of honor; three younger sisters, Joy, Julie and Jo Ann were her bridesmaids. Their identical cotton damask dresses, all made by Mrs. Fehring, had fitted bodices and bell skirts with full side panels. Circular tulle veils fell from their white velvet circlet crowns. Each bridesmaid carried a traditional Scandinavian bouquet of mixed flowers in pastel shades, which had been made by Mrs. Sidney Williams of Carmel Valley.

Dave's brother-in-law, James Dalke of Chico, was his best man. The ushers were James Johnson of Sacramento, Robert Warrell of Chico, and Duane Heryford of Weaverville.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Fehring wore a smoke green lace sheath with horizontal insets of corded silk, matching shoes and elbow-length gloves, also a small hat of green flowers and a single white, heart-shaped cymbidium.

Mrs. Davini was clad in a beige silk gown and jacket with a match-flowered hat.

The Carmel Woman's Club was filled with flowers when Jeanie and Dave were toasted in champagne by relatives and friends at the reception immediately following the ceremony. Baskets of daisies, stock and gladioli, also arranged by Mrs. Williams, were everywhere. On the bride's table a manzanita wedding tree, made by Mrs. Herbert Blanks, held flowers, bells and doves in its branches. The young couple cut their four-tiered wedding cake with a special knife loaned by Mrs. Eugene Scheffer.

When the newlyweds left for a brief honeymoon trip on their way

Fehring of Terre Haute, Indiana, and Peter Grote of Santa Cruz. The bride's godmother, Miss Gertrude Fehring of Altadena, was here, as well as her aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Dutch Fehring of Menlo Park, with their daughters, Susan Ann and Carol, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fehring with their daughter, Linda, of Altadena.

Friends and relatives of the bridegroom included, besides Mr. and Mrs. Davini, Mr. and Mrs. Al Perry of Santa Clara, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Perry and their sons, all of Santa Clara; Mrs. Starr McHugh of San Francisco, with her daughters, Naomi and Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Swanson of Alameda, Mrs. A. Jarvis of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. M. Korn of Alameda, Mrs. James Dalke of Chico, Mrs. James Johnson of Sacramento, Mrs. Robert Warrell of Chico, and Mrs. Duane Heryford of Weaverville.

Among the pre-wedding parties was a shower given for Jeanie on Wednesday evening of last week by Mrs. Gordon Campbell and Mrs. Rod Wilson. Guests included many of Jeanie's former Carmel High School classmates.

Reunion Party For Sunset '37

After the returning members of Sunset School's Class of 1937 left the auditorium on graduation night, where they were honored guests at this year's commencement exercises, they went on to the Mission Ranch for a reunion party, and to make plans for a possible further reunion, since some were part of the first graduating class at Carmel High School.

The "thirty-sevens" who were here for the reunion included Mrs. Vaughan C. Hill (Emma Ann Wisheart) of San Anselmo, Mrs. George Bevan (Alice Videroni) of Berkeley, Mrs. Paul Hazdovac (Lillian Ohm), Arthur Strasburger, Jr., Orville Jones, and Donald Berry, all of Carmel, and Charles Gansel of Carmel Valley. Joining the alumni at the Mission Ranch were Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Gansel, and Mr. Hazdovac.

A telegram from Pasadena to Orville Rogers, Sunset School principal, came from two other '37 classmates, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Parker (Harriet Hatton), who sent their good wishes.

Nancy Moore Receives Degree

Mrs. Willard Moore, the former Nancy Brown of Carmel, a graduate of Carmel High School who attended Stanford University before her marriage, this month received her bachelor of arts degree in drama at San Francisco State College.

In the fall Nancy will begin working toward her master's degree in dramatic art at the University of California. She makes her home in Berkeley and has three small sons, David, five, Robbie, four, and two-year-old Brian.

Family Visits Mrs. Stewart

Mrs. Florence L. Stewart of Carmel Point, who has just returned from a three months' trip by air through Europe and the Near East, has been enjoying a visit from her grandson, Ned Luker, the son of Admiral and Mrs. George Luker (Margaret Stewart) who 'although constantly on the move in the line of duty' all consider Carmel their home. The Lukers hope to retire here eventually.

Ned, who has been renewing friendships from his Sunset School days ("I went to Carmel High School for one day—and then my father was transferred," he says) has just finished his third year at Vanderbilt University, in Nashville, Tennessee, and leaves Carmel today to start two months of basic training at San Jose State College to enter the Peace Corps. His destination is the Philippines.

Mrs. Stewart will have more grandchildren in her home when her daughter, Katherine, who is Mrs. K. Stanley Thompson, will come from Palo Alto for a week's visit soon with her husband and three children, Katie, 11, Stewart, nine, and Kenneth, six.

Carolyn Hansen Engaged

The engagement of Carolyn Hansen and Lieutenant (jg) John A. G. Fraser was recently announced at a cocktail party at the Alamo home of her father, Martin Hansen.

Carolyn is the daughter of Mrs. Edwin W. Tucker of Carmel. A graduate of Carmel High School in 1956, she attended Oregon State College where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta, and has been teaching a second grade class in Concord. Her brother is David Hansen of Carmel.

Lieutenant Fraser is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. G. Fraser of Alamo. He was graduated from the University of California where he was a member of Chi Phi fraternity, Skull and Keys, and Winged Helmet. At present he is serving aboard the USS Rehoboth, an oceanographic survey ship. He has one brother, Peter Fraser, who is a student at Cal, and his grandparents are A. G. Fraser of Braderton, Florida, and Bertha McDowell of Livermore.

Pop's Grandson Graduates

"Well, Pop, I finally made it," wrote Ludvig Lloyd Kaftan, Jr., on an announcement of his graduation from Colorado State University which Carmel's Pop Smith received in the mail this week. Lud is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kaftan of Los Angeles, and has plans (which may be interrupted by plans of the United States Army, since Lud is in the ROTC) to become a radio or television announcer. Meanwhile he has a job as lifeguard at the Los Angeles municipal swimming pools, as does his sister Linda Lee, a student at the University of Southern California.

Scholarship For Gerald Crane

Alexandra Louise Houston, who spent much of her childhood in Carmel at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. C. W. Robinson, on Sunday became the bride of Lee Kenneth Benham in the Church of the Wayfarer. Dr. K. Fillmore Gray performed the ceremony at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride and bridegroom are pictured above as they turned to leave the altar.

Sandra, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Albert Houston of Galesburg, Illinois, who were unable to come west for the ceremony, was given in marriage by her uncle, Clark Turner of San Mateo. Mr. and Mrs. Davis Eugene Benham were here from Morton, Texas, for their son's wedding.

The bride wore a short white lace gown, with full side panels of white satin, a scalloped neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a small crown, and she carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis.

The pale blue dress of Miss Tempe Jane Robinson of San Mateo, the bride's cousin and only attendant, matched her hat and shadow veil. Her bouquet was of pink and white rosebuds.

Lee's best man was Barry Stone of Chicago, a college classmate. Dr. C. A. Broadus and Roy Myers of Carmel were the ushers.

For her granddaughter's wedding, Mrs. Robinson wore a muted pink lace dress and pink flowered hat. Mrs. Benham chose a blue suit of Chinese silk with a matching hat.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in the Fellowship Room of the church, where the young couple cut their wedding cake.

Sandra wore a lace-trimmed white sheath dress when she and Lee left by car on a wedding trip that will take them to Illinois and Texas to visit their families before they return to make their home in Palo Alto.

Sandra received part of her schooling at Sunset and Carmel High School, studied in Germany on a scholarship in 1959, was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and graduated summa cum laude in 1961 from Knox College in Galesburg, Illinois, where her father is chairman of the department of political science. Her husband, a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, also studied at Knox College. Cutting their wedding cake at the reception in the Don Room of the San Carlos Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waverly Lunt, Jr., The former Melanie Lynn Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Davis of Santa Clara, became the bride of Charles Waverly Lunt, Jr., at a double-ring ceremony at the Church of the Wayfarer on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, Dr. K. Fillmore Gray officiating. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lunt of Pebble Beach.

Vases of white gladioli and white stock stood on either side of the altar, and Mrs. Dorothy Gorham, a school friend of the bridal pair, was wedding soloist. She sang Oh Perfect Love and The Lord's Prayer. Completing the decor were sprays of white stock secured by satin bows on the pews, with a white center aisle runner.

Simplicity was the keynote for the bride's silk organza gown with basque bodice, long tapered sleeves and tiny buttons at back and sleeve closings. The floor-length skirt flowed into a chapel train in back, and puffed roses in Swiss embroidery encircled the portrait neckline and were repeated as appliques on the skirt front and in the back on the drape of the train. A cap of matching roses held a pouffe veil of imported silk illusion.

Melanie also wore the "something borrowed, something blue, and a lucky six-pence in her shoe," the last brought back from England by her bridegroom's mother.

Given in marriage by her father, she walked down the aisle carrying a cascade of stephanotis centered with a white orchid which she pinned on the suit to which she changed following the ceremonies.

For her role as matron of honor, Mrs. Charles V. Kieffer of Pacific Grove appeared in hyacinth silk organza over a taffeta sheath with scoop neckline and three-quarter sleeves. An overskirt of matching organza handkerchief drapery accented the ensemble, along with a three-tiered bouffant demi-veil centered with a matching organza Dior rose. She carried chiffon roses entwined with ivy and set in the same hyacinth silk organza material.

Sisters of the bride and the benedict, Karen Davis and Carolyn Lunt, served as bridesmaids in dresses identical to Mrs. Kieffer's, with identical flowers.

Performing the duties of best man was David Bein of Pebble Beach. Mike Williams of Pacific Grove; Fred Buchanan, Bob Bonetti and Tom Nix, all of San Jose, and Charles Kieffer of Pacific Grove ushered the wedding guests to their seats.

Imported silk in an azure hue with matching shoes had been selected by the bride's mother, who complemented her costume with a small white lace hat, white gloves and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Lunt, Sr., wearing a champagne silk linen suit with matching chiffon hat, also had a corsage similar to Mrs. Davis's.

Out-of-town guests included many friends from San Jose and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. A. B. Prichard of Coeburn, Virginia; her aunt, Mrs. Helen Tlayon of Sacramento; and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Duncan of Pleasant Hills; the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Lula McBride of Seattle; his aunt, Mrs. Joe Miles, and cousins, Debby and Jennifer, all of Seattle; close friends of the bridal couple, the Daniel Kaulahao family of Hawaii; Mrs. C. Fifer and Mrs. K. Grahme of Lake Tahoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lunt of Monterey.

Kathy Lunt, Charles's sister, was in charge of the guest book at the reception which followed in the Don Room of the San Carlos Hotel, Monterey. Prior to the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lunt entertained at a rehearsal dinner for the wedding party and out-of-town guests Saturday evening at Neil de Vaughn's restaurant.

Following a southern California honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in San Jose, at 63 North Keeble Street.

Melanie, a graduate of Pacific Grove High School, attended San Jose State College. Among her organizations are Job's Daughters and the Bank America Club of Santa Clara Valley of which she has been secretary. In addition to her sister, Karen, the bride also has two brothers, Kevin and Wayne, all of Santa Clara.

The bridegroom, also a Pacific Grove High graduate, attended Monterey Peninsula College, and is a past master counselor of the Monterey Peninsula De Molay. He is assistant manager of the Household Finance Company in San Jose.

David Greenfield Graduated

Assistant Superintendent of Schools Wayne Greenfield and Mrs. Greenfield drove up to Humboldt State College recently to attend the graduation of their son, David. With them was David's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Greenfield.

David, who majored in zoology, enjoyed a 10-day vacation in Mexico before taking a summer job.

EVERY ONE WHO WOULD LEARN TO PRAY

needs this book

Every right thinker knows that God is, and wants, so much, to approach Him intelligently through prayer — to commune with Him and to listen for His guidance.

In the first chapter of Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy there is an inspiring and practical explanation of prayer.

A great number of people, through the study of this chapter, have found needed health, harmony, supply and well-being.

Science and Health may be read or examined, together with the Bible, at any Christian Science Reading Room. Or it may be purchased at $3.

AN AUSTRIAN CHALET

THE CRISP WALK ON THE BEACH was wonderful. Now, while your guests gather round the middle-of-the-room fireplace, you set out a fondue or a buffet supper (previously prepared in the big, modern kitchen) on the quarry tile counters of the butler's pantry. Then enjoy with your guests the fine acoustics which the cathedral ceiling and paneled walls provide for your stereophonic equipment. When the last embers die, you retire to your own suite and your guests to theirs, in a separate end of the house. Next morning, breakfast in the sunny South patio. This is a sociable house—a house to live in, a house to love, and one which will delight your family and friends with its originality (and carefree maintenance) for years to come. Price? That's the best part—only $35,000—and in one of Carmel's most prestigious neighborhoods. Why not call now for the delightful details?

Last week the board approved a $160,800 budget for the coming year. Of this amount, $150,000 is allocated for continued evaluation study to determine a fair market value of local holdings of California Water and Telephone Company.

Valuation hearings will be resumed June 27 at 10:00 o'clock in the morning in Monterey Library.

Mr. Spencer says he has no special plans made for time after the end of this month, but expects to be working in the store for a while.

Set at 12 months the term of the adult school and summer school principal, provided the same person does both jobs, and added an additional one-twelfth salary increment in lieu of vacation time.
